Texas Muslim Women's Foundation (TMWF) will be hosting our Inaugural Fall Fundraiser on October 27, 2018 with guest speaker and young Muslim trailblazer Bushra Amiwala. At the age of nineteen, Bushra Amiwala ran for office as a candidate for the Cook County Board of Commissioners in her home state of Illinois. Through Amiwala's efforts, thousands of people registered to vote, many of them voting for the first time. Ms. Amiwala continues to work to empower young and minority voices and increase their engagement in politics. We are thrilled to welcome Bushra Amiwala to Dallas.

In preparation for this event, we are offering you an incredible opportunity to invest in our much-needed programs. Formed in 2005, TMWF works to empower, promote and support all women and their families through education, outreach, philanthropy and social services.

In a short span of time TMWF has improved the lives of many and made a great impact on the community. We have established:

- Culturally Sensitive and Trauma-Informed Social Services programming providing aid for families in need including counseling, food, shelter, housing assistance, educational financial aid and scholarships. We were the first domestic violence program in the country to offer this unique aid.
- We are now one of 7 Trauma-Informed and Evidence-Based Domestic Violence Programs in the nation including
 - 24-hour Peaceful Oasis Shelter - open to all faiths, Peaceful Oasis the first and only family violence crisis shelter in Texas addressing the specific language, faith, diet, social and legal needs of Muslim women.
 - 24-hour Crisis hotline, Crisis Counseling and Case Management.
 - Intervention services designed to increase awareness within the mainstream and Muslim communities.
- Educational programming featuring the Islamic Art Revival Series which encourages vibrant cross-cultural exchange amongst all faiths and builds bridges amongst all cultures.
- A very active Youth Leadership Development program that involves youth in volunteer and civic service projects across the Dallas/Fort Worth Metroplex. This program involves youth in over 800 volunteer hours every year.
- Sponsored Interfaith dialogues with Christian, Jewish and other faith communities that serve to address our community's most pressing needs.

Our programs and services reach thousands of people annually and your donations directly affect our ability to provide services and aid for people in need.

We hope you will consider supporting this tremendous effort. We have included available sponsorship options for our fundraising dinner and are happy to provide more information on the community impact of our programs in 2017 upon request. As you review our request know that your commitment will encourage others within the community to join us in your investment with our cause, but most importantly, it will help to improve the lives of many.

Should you wish to discuss your support in further detail, please call Mona Kafeel at 469-277-6272 or email coo@tmwf.org.

TMWF Mission: To empower, promote, and support women and families through Education, Outreach, Philanthropy, and Social Services.
